RETREAT TESTIMONIES

My Experience at the last ADRAC Retreat of Saturday 19 December 2015 Retreat by ADRAC is done periodically and incidentally I have attended all. The last retreat, by my assessment was first among equals, a best-seller. There were papers on:

- i) Integrated Reporting
- ii) Entrepreneurship
- iii) Case Study: Stanbic IBTC Vs FRC
- iv) An overview of IFRS

Venue was of the Western Hotel located in Ikeja GRA. Environment was clean and serene, the hall was full with a spillover. The quality of refreshments at regular interval was high and the buffet lunch was exceptional. I understand that registered attendance was well over a hundred. The standard of all the papers was high in terms of contents and delivery. DCS Alaribe for (ii) was at his BEST and attendees almost didn't want him to stop. The one that interests me most and the reason for writing is the Case Study which is a MUST read, learn and know by all accountants who are registrable with the FRCN. This paper will be a talk around town for a long time to come. It will also be a good idea if the ICAN MCPE can urgently accommodate this. It would have been SAD, very sad, if I had missed that ADRAC outing of Saturday 19 December 2015. Regards

The immediate last retreat organized by ADRAC is indeed the best amongst equals.

The papers presented were fantastic and the presenters truly displayed 360+ degree of understanding of their topics. They arrested the audience with feelings, thoughts and provocations for more. The conducive environment garnished with very high quality food and intermittent refreshments was great. The quality of customer service from ADRAC staff was something great too. I am sorry to say that ADRAC has created trouble for itself with the standard of this last retreat. For the retreat slated for the first quarter of 2016, we cannot afford to expect anything less. You must do well to inform us in advance so that we can make provision and mark our calendars ahead of the event. For me, ADRAC has done well and I can only say well done while expecting more. Please, don't call me Oliver Twist yet until I get more from ADRAC.
